Świebodzin is a town with 21,736 inhabitants.

The crowned statue of Christ completed in November 2010, is one of the world's tallest statues of Jesus.

Świebodzin is an important transportation hub, lying at the crossroads of the Polish national roads 2 and 3.

The A2 motorway and S3 expressway cross near the town. Świebodzin is located 39 km (24 mi) northeast of Zielona Góra, one of the two voivodeship's capitals, 195 km (121 mi) northwest of Wrocław and 110 km (68 mi) west of Poznań; 70 km (43 mi) east of the German border and 130 km (81 mi) east of Berlin.

The central market square is dominated by the town hall, built around 1550 in the renaissance style and rebuilt in the 19th century with the addition of its prominent clock tower.
